

APPLICATION FOR MEMBERSHIP

Membership to the Hall Forest Residents Association is open to anyone who lives within Kintore or has a vested interest in Kintore. Three different levels of membership are available whose eligibility is dependant upon the location of your home, your needs and your age.

Residential Membership is open to each permanent resident of a household, irrespective of tenure of all dwelling houses located on or nearby Hall Forest Avenue in Kintore. More specifically any house forming part of the following private housing developments between Forest Road and Castle Road:

- Castle Fields (Bett Homes)
- Deers Den (Stewart Milne)
- Forest Park (Persimmon Homes)
- Langan Meadows (Wimpy Homes)
- Marnoch Rise (Stewart Milne)

Except where a Quorum applies, all Residential Members are entitled to a single vote at general meetings. Where a Quorum applies, Residents of the developments, irrespective of membership or not, will only be entitled to one vote each for each plot owned within the Developments, no matter how many proprietors may reside within one dwelling house.

Associate Membership is open to all others over the age of 16 living within 5 miles of the centre of Kintore or have a vested interest in the running of the area. Youth membership will shortly be available and will be open to all residents of a household within Kintore under the age of 16.

All Residential and Associate Members shall pay an equitable subscription fee of £1.00 per annum although membership under certain circumstances may not be dependant upon subscription. The Membership Fee is reviewed and agreed by the Group at its Annual General Meeting. Further donations towards are always welcome in order to help fund various social events organised by the Residents Association.

Please complete the form overleaf and post/return to:
